COOKIES POLICY

Our website uses “cookies” and other technologies which store small amounts of information either on your computer or device to allow certain information from your web browser to be aggregated. Cookies are extensively used on the internet and allow a website/portal to recognize a user’s device without uniquely identifying the individual using the computer. These technologies help to make it easier for you to log on, use the site and provide us with your feedback as to which parts of the website you visit, so we can assess the efficiency of the site and provide a better user experience or to serve Platio adverts to you whilst browsing other sites.

For more information about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage, block and delete them, see www.allaboutcookies.org . You may also be able to configure your browser not to accept cookies, although please bear in mind that this may affect your ability to use services we provide.
